'PLEASE - HELP ME MAKE HER BETTER'

Mother's online bid to end the eczema misery for Tillie, 2

WHEN SHE'S WELL: Louise Spiller with Tillie when she's free of the skin condition

A YOUNG mum from Harlow has launched an online fundraising campaign in a bid to free her two-year-old daughter from an agonising skin condition. Louise Spiller's daughter Tillie suffers from a severe form of eczema and is in constant discomfort from extremely inflamed and itchy skin. She also has a number of allergies including dust. Her mother wants to raise £2,000 to convert the family's council-owned flat into a sterile hospital-style environment to help control the condition.

Heart-breaking

Louise, who also has an 11-month-old son, said: "Having the most precious thing in your life in so much pain and discomfort and feeling powerless to take it all away, is truly heart-breaking."

Eczema is a condition that causes the skin to become itchy, red, dry and cracked. The symptoms of eczema often have certain triggers, such as soaps, detergents, stress and the weather.

NHS chief in pledge of support to hospital

HEALTH Secretary Jeremy Hunt said reforming Princess Alexandra Hospital (PAH) in Harlow would be a 'priority' when he visited on Friday.

The leading Conservative politician was part of a round table event chaired by hospital chief Phil Morley in which they discussed the future of the hospital.

Mr Hunt was then shown round the hospital by a porter for a "day in the life" experience where he could see the hospital from the inside.

He said afterwards: "This is a very busy hospital with hard-working staff which needs all the support it can get from the NHS."

The visit was organised by Harlow MP Robert Halfon, who was also attended the round-table event and later thanked Mr Hunt for coming.

Pupils help to sign shoppers up to scheme

STUDENTS have been helping to keep residents in Harlow safe by encouraging them to sign up to the new Essex Community Messaging (ECM) system.

Pupils from Passmores School and Mark Hall Academy in Harlow joined Neighbourhood Constable Rob Hance and Local Partnership, Policing Hub Inspector Paul Maleary and Police and Crime Commissioner for Essex, Nick Alston, at the Tesco store in Edinburgh Way.

The ECM system enables people to sign up online to receive up-to-date information about crime in their area, tips on how to avoid becoming a victim as well as other important messages from Essex Police and Neighbourhood Watch about issues in their area.

Prospective parliamentary candidate for Labour Suzy Stride also showed her support for the scheme.

Fears antisocial crimes increasing

Highest number of incidents in Bush Fair

William Mata

william.mata@hertssexnews.co.uk

CONCERNS have been raised about crime levels in Harlow after a number of recent incidents including assault, robbery and antisocial behaviour.

Residents took to social media following police appeals including one asking for information about an incident where an 84-year-old lady was robbed of her handbag after being followed as she walked to her Old Harlow home on Saturday, February 14.

Appeals were also released after two groups of teenagers were arrested for a pair of assaults in Harlow in February, while a boy was punched in the face outside Passmores Academy during the same period.

On Facebook Lin O'Reilly wrote: It's not safe to go out in this town anymore day or night, it's about time they gave these dirty scumbags proper sentences.

In January 315 crimes were reported to police in central Harlow alone and with 48 incidents, Bush Fair was the ward with the highest number of crimes reported.

Harlow PC Rob Hance said there had been threats made to shopkeepers in the area, but many of the calls were out of a "fear of young people congregating in large groups".

"There has always been a perceived amount of anti-social behaviour due to the size of these groups," he said.

With 117 instances of antisocial behaviour in January, this crime formed a large portion of the total number of calls to police, but PC Hance said the police are dealing with the matter.

"Antisocial behaviour is always a concern for us because it raises the fear of future crime. If we deal with this behaviour now we can help prevent future crime," he said.

"It is being dealt with seriously and some young people are being given unacceptable behaviour contracts."

However, neighbourhood police sergeant Phil Moulsher said that although there had been a slight increase in crime, the rise is "not significant" and certainly not a worry for police.

"It looks as if, compared to this time last year, we have had a slight increase in crime, but not by a huge amount" he said.

Charities to benefit from County Hall cash boost

CHARITIES are feeling the benefit from a large government grant which will enable them to focus more on community projects.

Essex County Council has awarded 43 charities across the county a share of a £3m grant under the under the Independence, Choice, and Control Fund (ICCF).

The grants will provide funding for up to three years and will help support people with needs ranging from dementia to visual impairments.

Amongst the Harlow based charities to benefit are West Essex Mind and Homestart Harlow.

The Bush Fair based mental health charity West Essex Mind will receive a £20,000 one year grant, which will enable them to expand further in the town.

Homestart Harlow, based at the Latton Bush Centre, help ordinary families who are going through difficult times.

Charity spokesman Val Evans wasn't able to disclose how much the charity received, but she did say their three year investment was "brilliant".

She said: "The money will allow us to run an Alethea group to support mothers with post-natal depression.

"It means everything to us, and it's brilliant that we have been able to sustain it for three years," she added.

Alison Wilson, CEO said: "We thought it would be a good idea to reach out to the communities where people may find it harder to get support.

"We want to support people with mental health problems in harder to reach communities. We would like people who are experiencing a mental health problem to be able to come together in a safe supported place."

Single mum needs £2k to make flat sterile for Tillie

Online campaign for funds to help ease daughter's eczema

Eczema facts

- About one in five children in the UK has atopic (severe) eczema
- In 8 out of 10 cases, the condition develops before a child reaches the age of five
- It can run in families, and often develops alongside other conditions, such as asthma and hayfever
- Eczema can affect any part of the body, but the most common areas to be affected are knees, elbows, neck, hands and scalp

Gemma Gardner

gemma.gardner@hertsexsexnews.co.uk

DOTING mum Louise Spiller just wants her two-year-old daughter to be free of pain and smile again.

The 22-year-old's daughter Tillie suffers from a severe form of eczema and spends her time fighting a constant battle against extremely inflamed and itchy skin. The condition leads the toddler to scratch so much that she draws blood and severe enough to send her to hospital frequently.

Louise, who lives Spring Hills Tower, Harlow, has launched a crowd-funding campaign to raise £2,000 to redesign her flat to create a sanitary hospital-style environment with only a bed and wash room, all with wipe down surfaces, walls and flooring.

Tillie was diagnosed as a baby.

"This [condition] has had such an impact on her life she now feels self-conscious and in constant discomfort," Louise explained.

"Sometimes she's so self-conscious that she won't leave the house, and in so much discomfort that even putting on clothes is a struggle to her."

Powerless

"Having the most precious thing in your life in so much pain and discomfort and feeling powerless to take it all away, is truly heart-breaking."

There is currently no cure, but treatment can help relieve the symptoms and many cases improve over time.

However, severe eczema often has a significant impact on daily life and there is also an increased risk of skin infections. During flare-ups Tillie can be treated with steroids, but it is not a long term solution.

Louise said: "Doctors tell me not to use any of the commonly-marketed baby products, perfumed products, or soap.

"They have put Tillie on medication called prednisone which really lowers her immune system for a few weeks and then she will get weaned off of it. While she on this medicine it can be dangerous if she comes into contact with chicken pox as she would have to get admitted to hospital."

She added: "You can't really stop a baby from scratching. You can distract them where possible and keep them occupied and keep their nails short."

Sterile

Louise is trying to raise the money to redesign Tillie's living space by replacing the carpet with thick lino and redecorating her room to ensure it is completely sterile.

Louise says this will help minimise Tillie's contact with dust and reduce her irritation and allergies.

She also hopes this will keep her daughter away from hospital.

Louise, who also has an 11-month-old son, is desperate for her daughter to be pain-free.

She added: "I appreciate this is no small task at hand, however to reclaim Tillie's childlike sense of wonder, to see her smile and to know I have reduced her pain is worth everything and more."

"Will you please help me make this little girl's life whole again?"

"We all deserve to go out and play, enjoy the world and adventure through childhood as intended with your help. Together we can change a life."

Police make first drug-driving arrest using new roadside test

A HARLOW man has been arrested on suspicion of drug driving following the introduction of new legislation.

He was tested with new equipment that has been introduced to identify the possible presence of eight illegal drugs.

The 31-year-old man was stopped in West Road in the town shortly after 11pm on Friday after a vehicle was flagged for not having insurance.

He was subsequently arrested on suspicion of drug-driving after the equipment indicated the presence of illegal drugs in his system.

He was taken to Harlow police station for questioning and has been released on police bail to report back on May 15.

Chief Inspector Nick Lee, from Essex Police's roads policing unit, said: "We are already making use of this new legislation to take drivers suspected of driving under the influence of drugs off the roads and question them."

Ban

"Should they be convicted they could face a minimum one-year driving ban, a fine of up to £5,000, up to six months in prison and a criminal record. Driving under the influence of drugs can affect your reaction times and awareness, and makes you a potential threat to other road users and yourself."

"If we catch you and convict you then the very least you can expect is a criminal record, but the risks you take by driving under the influence of drugs could potentially put your life or someone else's in danger. Our message is simple - don't do it."

More homes, more people

SIR Amanda Fordham quite rightly questions the outcome of consultation exercises about house-building proposals (Letters, February 26) but only has to look at the outcome of a recent report to find out the reasons why.

Councils in the south east of England are under increasing pressure to find enough homes to house the growing population of this country and to deal with the housing shortage in London.

It is no co-incidence that many towns like Harlow are being told they must have 10,000 to 20,000 homes built in and around them to 'regenerate' them but there is no evidence to substantiate this.

Indeed, the building of thousands of homes in Harlow since 1990 has not led to any regeneration.

This is simply a ruse to build enough homes to house the massive population increase in the last 10 years.

A recent report concluded that councils are afraid to refuse planning permission for new housing developments because they cannot afford the cost of applications being taken to appeal which they then go on to lose.

Councils have acknowledged that applications are being granted which would otherwise be refused.

One has only to look at the price of the homes being built near Pye Corner to see that most local people will not be able to afford to buy a home there.

A report by Harlow Council last year said that it was likely that only 10-15 per cent of homes built in and around Harlow could be termed as affordable/social.

It is a simple fact that if a vast number of homes are built in the south east, more people will want to live here.

The Government must take action to reduce the number of people wishing to live here, otherwise there will be a continuous cycle of building more homes, the diminishing of green space between towns and a continuing crisis in our health and other vital services.

Grateful for hospital A&E

SIR This letter is being typed very slowly as I have the use, for the moment, of only one hand.

However, I feel I must write to thank the staff, doctors and nurses at the A&E department at Princess Alexandra Hospital and, through your columns, beg all those who are not genuine accident and emergency cases to leave these caring people to do the job they do so wonderfully well.

I fell and broke my wrist during rehearsals for Harlow

Ballet's performance of the The Nutcracker. I arrived at A&E at about 3.45pm and by 6pm I was on the way home, having been assessed, x-rayed, plastered up and given painkillers and an appointment remarkably soon for a follow-up.

Throughout the visit I was treated with courtesy and kindness and everything was explained to me in language I could understand.

We, in Harlow, are so lucky to have such caring professionals working all hours to help us in need.

So, please let's all stop knocking the NHS and PAH and be grateful we have such an excellent A&E department in the town.

It is time to stand down

SIR It is with a great degree of sadness that I have come to realise that due to ill health and recurring heart condition I can no longer lead the League of Gentlemen and must stand down with immediate effect.

I would be delighted if one of our members would write to me within the next four weeks, prepared to take up the post of chairman.

Thank you all for your loyalty in the past and good luck for the future. If I have no response I shall have no alternative but to close the organisations down.

Cannot praise hospital more

SIR Three weeks back I had the unfortunate experience of breaking my foot and ended up in accident and emergency at Princess Alexandra Hospital.

I have nothing but praise for all the staff I saw. I was treated with the upmost care, kindness and consideration. I cannot thank you all enough.

Mrs D Cargill

Plan needs to be finished

SIR For many years residents around Sumners have had the spectre of proposed development hanging over their heads.

This has recently been added to by a further proposed development in Hastingwood.

For some time Sumners Residents' Association has been active in attempting to forestall the proposed West Sumners development.

Both Harlow Council and Epping District Council have recently gone through the process of putting together a local plan.

Without this plan we are vulnerable to a predatory development, for example Gilden Way.

Could I, on behalf of all those residents who are blighted both emotionally and financially by this spectre of proposed development of over 5000 houses on the Epping/Harlow border, plead with both Epping and Harlow Councils to complete the process of local plan, therefore stalling the worst of all possible outcomes; a predatory bid.

Bob Gray
Chairman, Sumners Residents Association

Vote Green for justice for all

SIR The suggestion by veteran Conservative politician Lord Baker that his party enter into a coalition with Labour after the forthcoming General Election exposes the hollowness of the claim that there is a fundamental philosophical difference between the two parties.

Given that Labour Prospective Parliamentary Candidate Suzy Stride refuses to condemn the humanitarian disaster visited upon the people of Greece by the IMF and the European Union, it is clear that those who oppose the austerity programme of the government of Harlow Conservative MP Robert Halfon would be wasting their votes were they to give them to his Labour opponent.

The Conservative, Labour, Liberal Democrat, and UK Independence parties are all in favour of the pro-rich class-war austerity policies that have slashed public services, reduced wages, and cut social security benefits across Europe. It is high time that we emulated the people of Greece and rejected the discredited dogmas of these neo-liberal dinosaurs.

Greece's new SYRIZA-led government is committed to re-connecting the electricity supplies of those too poor to pay, raising pensions and the minimum wage, and re-instating sacked public sector workers.

Harlow electors who support prosperity, fairness, and justice for all will have an opportunity to express their support in May by voting for the Green Party Parliamentary candidate.

I suggest that they do so with a view to building a British version of SYRIZA.

KICK IT: Harlow Town Football Club is supporting a campaign to help young people give up smoking

Helping young smokers kick the habit

A FOOTBALL team have joined the campaign to stop Essex teenagers from starting smoking as part of British Heart Foundation (BHF) No Smoking Day.

Teaming up with Anglican Community Enterprise (ACE), Harlow Town FC have backed a county-wide campaign to tackle Essex's young smoker problem.

With nearly one in five of the county's population smoking, Essex has a higher than average number of smokers compared to the rest of England as well as an above average number of youngsters who start smoking.

While the number of 11-15 year olds who smoke has reduced to only three per cent, the figure is still higher than the national average, and groups are hoping the latest campaign will help cut that number further.

With figures showing that children who participate in sport are less likely to smoke, Harlow Town FC will play a key role in helping ACE spread the anti-smoking message.

John Divers from ACE in Harlow, said: "The clear message to all youngsters is not to be even tempted to try smoking. At the same time, for those who do smoke, we encourage them to take advantage of our free service."

"No Smoking Day provides an added chance to raise awareness of the help on offer and remind smokers that they're four times more likely to quit with support than going it alone. We're very grateful to Harlow Town FC for backing our Kick-it campaign."

Prostitute was robbed in flat at knife point

Lawal is sentenced to five years in jail

Court Reporter

star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A HARLOW man has been jailed for robbing a prostitute at knife point and for his involvement in a violent street disorder.

Adam Lawal, 23, of Carters Mead, pleaded not guilty to robbery at a previous hearing but was convicted by a jury. At Chelmsford Crown Court on Monday he was handed a five-year jail sentence.

Robbery

Lawal, who has previous convictions for robbery, admitted a charge of violent disorder in relation to an incident in Bishopsfield, Harlow, on January 18, and was given a further two years in prison.

He was on bail for that offence at the time he robbed the prostitute.

His co-accused in the street fight, Carl Manton, 24, of Little Brays, Harlow, pleaded not guilty to violent disorder but was convicted.

He was given a two year suspended prison sentence. Manton was also ordered to serve 140 hours' unpaid community work. Jailing Lawal for a total of seven years Judge Christopher Ball QC told him: "It was utterly terrifying for someone entrapped in enclosed premises with a stranger with a knife. You are a dangerous offender."

The court heard how Lawal had set up to meet the prostitute on September 18, last year.

Judge Ball said: "Lawal set up the meeting with the prostitute that morning by phone and once the meeting was confirmed he ensured he had a knife with him."

He used the knife to threaten her into submitting to a theft." The court heard that a fight broke out at a teenager's party in Bishopsfield over a drug debt.

There was "a fierce confrontation" between men, including Lawal, and another group, including Manton.

It spilled out on to the street and woke up residents in the early hours.

A car was involved which crashed and damaged three other vehicles.

Who did what was not clear, said the judge, but the violence was "frightening".

Reaction

Mitigating for Lawal, Richard Kelly said he became involved in the disorder but it was a reaction to what someone else had done.

He said that Lawal had "repeatedly said sorry" to the robbery victim and not taken her phone when she pleaded with him not to. It was a working flat, not her home, he added.

Lawal has a five month old child who he had barely seen because he has been in prison on remand since September said Mr Kelly.

He added: "He knows he will miss a portion of the child's young life."

Lawal's father was a strict disciplinarian and the defendant knew he had disappointed his family, Mr Kelly added.

Boy's cancer fight inspires marathon run

A YOUNG boy's battle with cancer has inspired a Harlow man to run the Virgin Money London Marathon.

Kenny Smith, 32, has twice completed the 26.2-mile challenge for charity and was planning to run the 2015 edition, on Sunday, April 26, on his own terms.

That changed after a chance encounter with Deryn, a 15-year-old boy, who is fighting Leukaemia and ultra-rare cancer Langerhans Cell Sarcoma (LCS).

He is one of only five people worldwide to have LCS and the only one to have the illness alongside Leukaemia. After suffering several devastating infections and left with no immune system, Deryn was not expected to survive but is now in remission.

In December Deryn set up charity Do Everything with the aim of building the finest residential, recreation and therapeutic centre for teenagers with cancer in the UK.

You can sponsor Kenny by texting 'KENS15' with the amount you pledge (eg. £15) to 70070.

ON YOUR MARKS: Kenny will be running the marathon for a third time

Fire service call handlers strike

Walkout planned to last for eight days

William Mata

william.mata@hertsexnews.co.uk

ESSEX County Fire and Rescue (ECFRS) 999 call operators will walk out for up to eight days after the county chiefs imposed a controversial new shift system.

Members of the Fire Brigades Union taking the industrial action accuse bosses of continuing to ignore cost-neutral alternatives that could avert the protest originally planned over three days.

The union says not only will this be the longest strike to date but all the strikers are likely to be women.

The 999 control operators went on strike at 7am on Tuesday, March 10 and will not return until 7am on Wednesday, March 18.

The stoppage is over a new shift system which the union claims has caused some emergency control operators to leave their jobs or drastically reduce their hours and pay, with many more considering their future with the service.

Riccardo la Torre, chairman of the FBU in Essex, said: "Essex County Fire and Rescue Service like to portray themselves as a modern employer.

"However here they are forcing professional women out of their jobs and making life intolerable.

"The vast majority of the control operators are women, many with young families and caring responsibilities.

"They have professional careers that they need to balance with their family lives.

Unnecessary

"These shift changes are unfair and completely unnecessary as there are alternatives on the table that cost the same, but would be more manageable for all those working in the control room today and in the future.

"It's time the fire authority listened to their control staff properly and for common-sense to prevail."

The current strike action has coincided with news that the chief fire officer, David Johnson, is set to return to duty following a period of absence.

Alan Chinn-Shaw, secretary of the Fire Brigades Union in Essex, said this week: "The chief fire officer's return is an opportunity for a fresh pair of eyes to look at the serious problems in the emergency fire control room.

"He should also lend a sympathetic ear to the genuine concerns of his professional control staff who are finding the new shift system intolerable.

"We are hopeful the chief's return could provide the catalyst for meaningful negotiations."

Serious concerns have also been raised about the numerous IT failures and complete breakdowns in the new mobilising system resulting in control staff having to take details of emergencies on pen and paper in order to dispatch fire engines to incidents.

ECFRS have said the strike will not impact on their service.

Praise for 'innovative' local businesses

THREE businesses in Harlow and Roydon have been praised by MP Robert Halfon after being named in London Stock Exchange's 1000 companies to Inspire Britain report.

Mr Halfon congratulated Astro Lighting, Ozdil UK and UK Salads for making the list which celebrates the UK's most dynamic and fastest growing small and medium sized businesses.

He said: "This is a wonderful achievement for three companies. Each company is an asset and shows that Harlow is open for the best of business in the UK.

"Small businesses like Astro Lighting, Ozdil UK and UK Salads play a vital role in our economy and in local communities, supporting innovation, jobs and growth."

Innovative

Astro Lighting are an innovative and varied lighting company based on River Way alongside Ozdil, one of the largest wholesalers of soft drinks in Europe.

Roydon based UK Salads offers a first class range of vegetables nationwide.

Fraudulent caller stole cash from 88-year-old lady

Warning after five attempts in two days

Gemma Gardner

gemma.gardner@hertsexnews.co.uk

BOGUS callers posing as police officers stole money and jewellery from an 88-year-old woman in Harlow.

Detectives are warning residents in the area to be wary after a sudden surge in phone calls by fraudsters posing as police officers over the weekend.

Essex Police received five reports and in one case the thieves were successful in stealing money and items from their victim.

DC Leo Fordham, of Harlow CID, said: "All of those targeted so far have been elderly residents. They have been contacted by either a man or a woman claiming to be a police officer."

"They have then told the victims that two people have been arrested for stealing money from their bank account and they have given the victims crime reference numbers to make the calls seem more genuine."

In the one successful theft, an 88-year-old victim was called shortly after 6pm on Friday March 6 by a woman.

"She said that two boys had been arrested for stealing £300 from the victim's account and asked if the victim still had her card," said DC Fordham.

"The victim confirmed she did, and was then passed to a Scottish sounding male who said he was from CID. He told her that the police would need her card and a courier would collect it."

Victim

"The victim did not disclose her address and the man stayed on the line for some time before telling her that someone had arrived at her house."

"The man who took the card is described as tanned, with loose curly hair, around 5ft 6in tall and was wearing a shirt and dark trousers."

"The man claiming to be a detective then called back a short time later and told the victim that she needed to give her cash and jewellery to police for safe keeping."

"The same man came around again and was given £160 in cash and £200 of jewellery."

"There was a further call to arrange to pick up another bank card and the victim rang us on Saturday to find out when we would be attending and it was at that point that the offence came to light."

"We would like to remind everyone to be on their guard against this type of fraud. Police would never ask you for your bank details or ask you to transfer or withdraw funds."

"If you do receive calls like these do not fall for their claims and just put the phone down immediately and call police on 101, using a different phone if possible."

"As these fraudsters generally target the elderly and vulnerable we would also ask people to share the following advice with elderly neighbours and relatives."

Top of the chops! Scott raises £1,300

HARVEY Centre security guard Scott Wright has had his first shave in eight months to raise money for charity.

Mr Wright, 34, of Torkildsen Way, Harlow, had his long beard ceremonially cut in the middle of the shopping centre on Saturday, February 28, and has so far raised more than £1,300 for St Clare Hospice.

"Having it shaved off was weird experience," said Mr

Wright, who decided to let his facial hair grow last summer.

"It's strange to think that it took so long to grow but before I knew it the beard was off."

"My family much prefer it off and they say I look 10 years younger. But I do miss it, as it kept me warm and it was like my scarf."

Legends barbers had the honour of shaving the beard off, and friends, family and shoppers all crowded round to watch.

A spokeswoman from St Clare Hospice said: "Scott did a fantastic job in raising all of that money for St Clare Hospice."

"Although it must have been hard say goodbye to such an impressive beard, raising £1,300 for such an important cause makes it all worthwhile. It was also great to see so many people there on the day to support Scott and cheer him on."

Award for involving parents

A TOP parent involvement award has been presented to a primary for their efforts in making mums and dads feel part of the school community.

Pear Tree Mead Primary in Harlow are proudly showing off their Leading Parent Partnership Award that was achieved after months of hard work.

Inclusion manager at the school Julie Haigh said: "It feels brilliant, we have worked very hard to encourage parent involvement.

"The award is all about how we engage with parents and what they are doing with their children. Parents have been coming into school for our 'teach a parent days' where they will show a parent something they have learnt in school."

The school hold adult learning classes and parents are invited in for 'all about me' day. They won the award after an assessment in early January and will hold it until 2018.

TODDLERS at Rum Tum Tuggers nursery are benefiting from weekly lessons in basic sign language courtesy of Little Signers Club.

The Tiny Tuggers and Toddler Tuggers groups are taught basic words and sounds every Wednesday at the Riddings Lane-based nursery.

Laura Boulton-Dunn, Little Signers Club manager, said: "The toddlers really look forward to Little Signers Club visiting us. It's a fantastic way to engage with our toddlers and a brilliant way of communicating."

"The children have learnt lots of signs and especially like the action songs."

Queen's Counsel honour for proud trust director Dan

Prestigious legal title for Burnt Mill bigwig

William Mata

william.mata@hertsexnews.co.uk

A DIRECTOR of the Burnt Mill Academy Trust (BMAT) has become the only state-educated barrister to become a member of the Queen's Council.

Dan Kolinsky, vice-chairman of the board that covers five schools in Harlow, has taken silk in this year's election process. He joined the board of directors in July 2013.

Mr Kolinsky, who has one child at secondary school and two at primary, said: "I know how it is a whole new world for him and for us. It's a very changed relationship as a parent when your child goes to secondary school."

Smoothed

"For that change to be smoothed with there being the work of secondary school going on in primary is great. It provides a massive level of resource to primary parents and enables secondary schools to hit the ground running. If you're a parent of a primary age child, it's a fantastic opportunity when you have got every confidence in the secondary school."

Helena Mills, CEO of BMAT, said: "Dan's expertise has really strengthened the leadership of our trust."

"What is great about Dan is that he is eager to support in more practical ways, too. As a first-class law graduate from Oxford, Dan is eager to talk to our students about applying to top universities and get involved in developing the debating skills of our students."

■ THE First Avenue Academy has attracted the interest of education leaders nationwide after achieving an "Outstanding" Ofsted rating.

The secondary school again opened its doors to visiting head teachers after receiving many requests for tips on how Burnt Mill headteacher Helena Mills has turned the comprehensive around.

Ms Mills said: "Everybody loves our story and asks how we have achieved what we have."

"People need to come and see it to believe it."

The first open day in November saw 19 heads and deputies attend the all-day event, hearing from Burnt Mill's senior leaders about tracking progress through regular data-gathering and raising expectations and achievements.

They also got to see the theory in practice with visits to classrooms and lesson observations where they questioned students, looked at their work books and watched outstanding teaching in action.

One day per term has now been set aside to enable visitors to experience the school's journey first-hand.

SOUNDS GREAT: The children perform

Opportunity to enjoy the classics...

PROFESSIONAL musicians joined orchestras from Harlow schools at Stewards Academy for two live performances.

As part of the 'First Time Live - Youth' project led by national charity Orchestras Live, 200 students from seven Harlow primaries joined representatives from London Sinfonia Orchestra before 100 pupils from all of the town's secondary schools took to the stage.

The participating secondary schools were: Stewards, Mark Hall, Passmores Academy, St. Marks and Burnt Mill Academy, while the primary schools were made up of: Katherine's, Milwards, St Albans, Roydon, Potter Street, Purford Green and Fawbert & Barnards.

Packed

Large audiences packed into the Parnall Road based Stewards for both performances, which gave an opportunity to hear a live orchestra to those who would not otherwise have had the chance.

Emily Oliver, who helped organise the event, said: "All of the schools have enjoyed working collaboratively to achieve our shared goal."

"We hope that our enthusiasm and passion for music is able to pass down to the next generation of budding musicians, and that our audiences feel inspired to continue a relationship with classical and orchestral music; through listening, playing an instrument or composing some music of their own."

Bright idea will transform the corridors at Freshwaters Academy

A DRAMATIC makeover will transform a primary school with bright colours to inspire positivity and aspiration.

The corridors of Freshwaters Primary Academy in School Lane, Harlow, will have five large central cupboards covered in bright photos and mirrors set up along the walls.

Headteacher Marios Solomonides said the idea was to make best use of the school's space.

She said: "We are trying to make the very best of all space available to us. The cupboard doors feature images from different areas of the curriculum, including a professional swimmer, the natural water cycle, the Houses of Parliament to represent British values, an Ancient Greek temple and famous artwork.

"It is all very inspirational and we want our children to recognise these scenes and messages."

■ THE school has replaced its traditional PTA body with new scheme Parent Champions, which helps to give parents more of a hands-on role within the school.

Children will also be given more say under the new scheme, and have used their new power wisely to help the new the house point system.

Supermarket helps charity with donation

A CHARITY is feeling the benefit of a donation from Church Langley Tesco, who generously complemented a large purchase from the supermarket.

Harlow mental health charity West Essex Mind had invested in 18 models of the Hudl, a tablet sold uniquely in Tesco, to make the lives a bit easier of their hardworking staff.

The store then kindly helped out by supplying the charity with protective covers, which were collected by Greg Evans and Martin Baker, peer support worker at Mind.

Diane Harper, Community Champion at Church Langley Tesco, said: "We wanted to give them the tablet covers as the Hudls to make their jobs easier for longer.

"Lots of staff were delighted to be involved with this community donation," she added.

League tables

SECONDARY schools in Harlow topped and tailed an Essex GCSE results table showing the percentage of students to get five or more C standard passes.

Burnt Academy topped the Harlow School list, finishing a credible eighth in Essex out of 125 schools. By contrast Mark Hall Academy finished eightieth.

Sir Charles Kao University Technical College did not feature in the rankings as they have not been open long enough to register a figure.

Improving waiting times is a 'priority'

Minister's pledge on Princess Alexandra Hospital tour

William Mata

william.mata@hertsessexnews.co.uk

HEALTH Secretary Jeremy Hunt said making improvements at Princess Alexandra Hospital (PAH) in Harlow will be a priority if a Conservative government is re-elected in May.

The health minister staged a roundtable meeting with Harlow MP Robert Halfon and hospital chief executive Phil Morley on Friday before being given a tour by a hospital porter.

Mr Hunt said afterwards: "This is a very busy hospital with hard working staff which needs all the support it can get from the NHS.

"There have been problems and I think the staff have been making super-human efforts to deal with the situation. Problems of waiting times here will be a priority.

Quality

"There has also been a real change in the quality of patient safety and staff feel they are able to report concerns they want to raise."

One of the biggest issues affecting hospitals is the quality and treatment of nurses, but the Mr Hunt said these things will change.

"Nurses are getting a pay rise, it's not as generous as I would like, but we do have financial pressures. We need more nurses and we're now committed to recruiting more than ever before," said Mr Hunt.

The MP for South West Surrey has been under pressure to commit to the future of the NHS but said he has already shown he believes in it:

"My top priority [if re-elected] is to reshape the NHS so it is better at dealing with the pressures of an ageing population," he said.

"I would also like to see the NHS become the safest health care system in the world. I would like to see what happened in Mid-Sussex as a turning point and an opportunity for change."

Mr Halfon said: "Our hospital has one of the busiest accident and emergency departments in the country, and is the number one busiest for the number of beds it has.

"I'm really happy the Secretary Of State sat with staff to hear all the concerns about the pressures in A&E and training of nurses."

In brief

Petrol station closed by accident damage

POLICE were called to the petrol station at Tesco Church Langley after a pensioner sustained damage to the front of their shop.

Essex Police confirmed that a man in his 70s sustained minor injuries in the incident when his silver Ford Focus collided with the front of the petrol station shop.

Officers were called around 11.20am and the petrol station was closed while recovery of the vehicle took place.

Teenager assaulted

A TEENAGER boy was assaulted outside Passmores Academy.

The incident happened at around 3pm on February 23.

The suspect, believed to be a teenage boy, opened the door of the car the victim was sitting in and punched him in the face. The victim was left with cuts and bruises to his lip.

Anyone with any information is asked to contact PC Dawn Shearing at Harlow Police station on 101.

Arson charge for man

A MAN has been charged with arson following a fire in Spruce Hill, Harlow, last year.

The charge arises from an incident in which the front door of a property was damaged by fire in the early hours of September 15.

Tarik Serradji, 39, from Canonbury Road, Enfield, is due to appear before magistrates at Chelmsford later this month.

He has been charged with arson with intent to endanger life.

Cyclist Dave Sherry films misdemeanours of drivers

Catherine Johnson

star@hertssexnews.co.uk

CAMERA-CLAD cyclist Dave Sherry is hoping to change the attitudes of road users by filming dangerous incidents.

Mr Sherry, 37, who lives in Katherines, Harlow, says all his videos are filmed during his 40-mile daily round-trip to the train station.

Bus driver Mr Sherry uses cameras attached to his bike and helmet and his videos have led to more than 70 convictions for a variety of driving offences.

Mr Sherry said he began to make the recordings when was hit by a car whilst out cycling.

"After a car hit my back wheel the police told me it was his word against mine so I decided to protect myself," he said.

But his filming has had repercussions.

He has been driven off the road, sworn at, subjected to dangerously close passes and physically assaulted - all of it caught on camera. He has filmed both drivers and other cyclists.

To keep himself safe, Dave uses a Garmin GPS to log times, dates and locations of incidents, a truck horn and a personalised hi-viz.

He said: "My family are fully supportive of me. They do worry, but no more than if I didn't have the cameras."

Mr Sherry, who has been cycling for 14 years, collaborates with police forces around the various areas he cycles, by handing over evidence of careless and dangerous driving.

He added: "The evidence can be and has been used in court. Only last week a woman was sent for a driver awareness course because of one of my videos."

"I believe the police think it is a positive thing and we have even been talking about going out for a cycle together."

Mr Sherry added: "Drivers can help cyclists by being aware of just how much damage their car can do. We all need to be more considerate and observant."

If a cyclist, or anyone else, has similar evidence, it can be reported to Essex Police on the non-emergency number 101.

Volunteers needed for community bus

VOLUNTEERS are urgently needed to keep a vital transportation service running in the town.

Harlow Community Transport (HCT) give lifts to those without transport or with restricted mobility and many depend on the service to get to doctors or hospital appointments. With demand for the service higher than ever, HCT are desperately searching for new trustees with two members having recently left the board.

Trustees are needed to help stabilise and guide the organisation, and those with financial, legal or business experience are particularly encouraged to apply.

HCT have aims to expand into the future but without help the whole operation is put at risk.

Sam Stoppelcamp, general manager at HCT, said: "We are just trying to get people in the community to help the community."

"We do around 50,000 journeys a year and have 4 or 500 regular customers and we need to have a number of trustees to keep running."

"The vast majority of our customers are disabled, but we also do a lot of work with the primary schools and help children to go swimming. By running outside of the council we have estimated we have saved tax payers £50,000 a year and now we are looking for people to help us stabilise."

Literature feted in schools across town

World Book Day is marked with zest by young readers

William Mata

william.mata@harlowstar.co.uk

WORLD Book Day was marked in style across Harlow with the importance and value of reading celebrated.

The annual day promotes reading and allows everyone to benefit from a range of special books on offer.

At supermarket giant Asda bookworms were united for a get together to celebrate the event.

The Water Gardens store invited local book clubs to read together in their meeting room space as part of their Community Life programme.

Importance

Harlow MP Robert Halfon was on hand at St Marks Catholic School to highlight the importance of books to students.

Mr Halfon led an assembly where he spoke on the value of literature and what books meant to him personally. Afterwards the MP held a political debate with students where he commended their intrigue and willingness to ask questions.

He said: "It is wonderful to be able to take part in World Book Day in Harlow. It is a day that shows Harlow and the world why books are such wonderful things to have, and hopefully encourages people to read more often."

Students from Holy Cross Primary in Traceys Road, dressed up as their favourite book characters in celebration of World

Book Day.

Harlow Council chairman Ian Beckett and Labour Parliamentary candidate Suzy Stride both took time out to come and read from classic children's tales to students.

Miss Stride, who read from Winnie the Pooh, said afterwards: "It was great to spend time with

TELLING TALES: Cllr Ian Beckett reads his favourite story to pupils at Holy Cross Primary School students at Holy Cross Primary School, encouraging and promoting the importance of reading, and sharing one of my favourite children's books."

On his second stop of the day, Mr Halfon also visited Holy Cross where he read some of the CS Lewis classic The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe to Year Five students. The Harlow MP then handed out reading certificates.

Young readers at Freshwaters Primary in School Lane, were saved by the bell for a spontaneous reading session.

Children in all year groups dressed in pyjamas and spent the day listening out for the bell that prompted them to drop everything and read.

Head teacher Marios Solomonides said: "Children and adults relished the opportunity to drop everything and read. It showed them they can escape to a different world just by opening the pages of a book."

Children also enjoyed a Mad Hatters Tea Party-themed lunch to highlight the story of Alice in Wonderland and took photos into school of them reading in the most unusual places.

Joining in the fun were children from Cooks Spinney Primary School who dressed up as their favourite story book characters for a trip to Harlow Library.

Amy Warner, from Cooks Spinney, said: "There was a fantastic atmosphere here at Cooks Spinney on World Book Day, with lots of activities set up for the children. The purpose was to raise awareness of reading for enjoying among our children."

Good news for pandas

panda facts

- The giant panda is a solitary animal which spends about two-thirds of its day feeding and the remainder resting.
- It feeds almost exclusively on the stems, leaves and fresh young shoots of bamboo. However, bamboo is so nutritionally poor that the pandas have to consume up to 20kg each day, which can take up to 16 hours.
- Pandas are skilled tree-climbers and efficient swimmers.
- The giant panda does not hibernate but it will shelter in caves or hollow trees in very cold weather.
- The panda uses its stump-like tail like a brush to mark territory with 'scent' produced by scent glands located beneath the tail.

THEY are one of the cutest and most popular animals in zoos. And the good news for the giant panda is that their numbers in the wild are on the increase.

Pandas live in China where they survive on a diet of bamboo shoots.

In 2003 there were around

1,596 pandas living in the wild, but according to the latest count there are now 1,864.

Nearly three-quarters of the pandas live in the south-west of the country.

And it is not only in the wild that their numbers are increasing. Today there are almost 200 more living in captivity than there were back in 2003.

Ginette Hemley, from animal conservation charity World Wildlife Fund, said: "The rise in the population of wild giant pandas is a victory for conservation and definitely one to celebrate.

"This is a testament to the commitment made by the Chinese government for the last 30-plus years to wild panda conservation. WWF is grateful to have had the opportunity to partner with the Chinese government to contribute to panda conservation efforts."

Funny times are on their way to Harlow

TOP comics will be coming to Harlow for an amusing April at The Square.

Mock the Week and Never Mind the Buzzcocks regular Ben Norris will be appearing at Harlow Comedy Club on Wednesday, April 8.

Ben is a highly experienced and hugely well-respected stand-up comedian. As well as being a fantastic gag writer he is renowned for his improvisational abilities and easy way with an audience.

Ben has performed at comedy festivals the world over and is a regular headliner at comedy clubs.

Other interesting facts about Ben are that he is the only comedian on the circuit to have fathered triplets and he is the cousin of actor Martin Freeman.

He will be joined at the Fourth Avenue venue by upcoming comedians Pierre Hollins and Paul T Eyres for a laugh-a-minute spectacle.

The only other 'proper jobs' Pierre Hollins' ever had were washing dishes in the House of Commons, labouring on a gas pipeline in Qatar, and teaching drama to the mentally ill.

He has been an audience favourite on the comedy circuit for many years and has headlined at clubs throughout the UK, Europe, the Middle East and Asia.

In the early days, he worked as a support act to Lenny Henry and Rory Bremner; appeared in the West End with Rita Rudner and toured with The Flying Pickets, Willie Rushton and Barry Cryer.

Tickets start from £8 in advance and will cost £10 on the door.

'Best' BOWIE will be falling to EARTH

BRITAIN'S 'best David Bowie tribute' will be returning to The Square on Saturday, March 21. Paul Henderson's Aladdinsane show will offer a comprehensive experience of the Dame in special evening at the Fourth Avenue venue.

Billed as "The Greatest David Bowie tribute in the UK and beyond", Paul has gained a stellar reputation for his spectacular shows that take audiences back to the singers 1970s best.

Taking its name from Bowie's acclaimed sixth album, Aladdinsane offers a journey through the Dame's half-century-spanning back catalogue and will feature hits such as Space Oddity, Heroes, Let's Dance and Starman.

While the big hits will be sure to rock the house, dedicated fans will appreciate the shows depth, with Paul unafraid to bring out the iconic star's lesser known later works from the 1990s to present.

Paul's lifelong passion for his favourite singer of his youth has inspired him to perform all over the UK and beyond, playing 20 shows a year.

He said: "I grew up with Bowie, I've been a fan all my life.

"I started performing eight or nine years ago as Bowie and it's great fun. I am still a songwriter in my own right, but I absolutely love doing the Aladdinsane shows.

"I am very lucky to be invited to perform as David Bowie and I love performing at The Square. I love the venue and there is always a great turnout, a really friendly crowd" he added.

Back to the KITCHEN

As MasterChef returns for a new series, judge John Torode, who's coming to the Essex Food Festival this summer, is priming his taste buds. The Aussie chef tells Jeananne Craig about the twists and turns in store

John Torode and Gregg Wallace may have spent the past decade hosting MasterChef together, but don't expect them to hang out, Ant and Dec-style, when the cameras stop rolling.

"We're like an old married couple who travel away from each other all the time," says Torode, when asked why their partnership works so well.

"We don't really spend time together. I have no idea where he is when we're not filming, we have very different lives, different tastes, we listen to different music, I'm cool and he's a bit old and dodgy..."

The pair "never try and impose our views on each other", adds the 49-year-old, who has returned for a new run of the BBC One cookery show this week.

"The only things he imposes upon me are his bloody stupid jokes."

As always, viewers can look forward to "a couple of twists and turns" in series 11, which features 40 amateur cooks competing over 24 episodes.

The most notable "twist" is a reinvention test, which sees heat-stage hopefuls taking the main ingredient from their signature dish (known as the 'calling card' dish) and turning it into a brand new plate of food.

If they impress the judges, and get through another two-course challenge, they'll make it into the quarter finals, and finally, at the end of the gruelling seven weeks, 2015's champion will be crowned.

Torode, who grew up in Maitland, in Australia's New South Wales, says he still gets inspired by the home cooks who enter.

"This year, more than anything, we've seen such a diverse group of cooks with really different ideas, with food from all around the place - from people cooking street food to really elegant fine dining, to brilliant stuff from Austria and Germany, through to Japan, Italy, France, China, Malaysia, Russia."

He also has MasterChef to thank for his romance with actress and cookery writer Lisa Faulkner, who he met when she competed in - and won - Celebrity MasterChef in 2010.

"She's such an amazing cook. She's so great and so generous, and she's pretty good-looking as well. The old man did all right!" says Torode.

The TV judge would never critique his former contestants' food, however - including Faulkner's.

"Can you imagine me going to somebody's house, or to Lisa, and saying, 'Well I think this would work, maybe if you did this...' That would be the rudest thing in the whole world."

Torode is also working on a new book, My Kind Of Food, due out later this year, "about the food I cook at home - clams and spaghetti, really good salad, curry, pies".

Here's a recipe from previous Celebrity MasterChef winner, Nadia Sawalha...

Nadia Sawalha's Sea Bass with a Tahini Sauce, Carrot and Onion Seed Salad and Saffron Rice

SERVES 4

Ingredients

4 sea bass fillets, skin on 1tsp ground cumin
1/4tsp cinnamon
1tbsp olive oil
Sea salt and freshly ground black pepper

For the salad:

4tbsp vegetable oil
250g onions, finely sliced
250g carrots, finely grated
Salt

Juice of 1/2 lemon

For the tahini sauce:

1tsp salt
1 garlic clove
100ml tahini
Juice of 1 lemon
2tbsp finely chopped flat-leaf parsley

For the saffron rice:

Pinch of saffron threads
400ml hot chicken stock
25g butter
50g whole blanched almonds
200g basmati rice
1tsp baharat spice
50g raisins

Method

To make the salad, fry the onions in half the oil until golden and caramelized. Meanwhile, put the carrots in a bowl and add salt and lemon juice. Mix well, then stir in the onions.

To make the sauce, put the salt into a mortar and pound with the garlic until really smooth. Pour in the tahini and mix with a whisk. Add the lemon juice and whisk until sticky, then whisk in 75ml of warm water. When it looks like thick double cream, stir in the parsley.

Put the saffron in the stock. Melt half the butter in a heavy pan and fry the almonds gently. When they are golden, remove and set aside.

Put the remaining butter in, add the rice and spice, stir, and add the raisins. Pour in the hot stock, season, bring to the boil, give it one more stir and then put the lid on and reduce the heat to as low as possible. Cook for about 15-20 minutes. Mix the fried almonds through.

Dry the sea bass fillets with kitchen paper. Rub the spices over them and season well. Gently heat the olive oil in a heavy frying pan and slide the fish in, skin-side up. After about three minutes turn the fillets over and cook for another three minutes or so.

The critically acclaimed production returns to the West End for a limited season from 21 April 2015

Harlow Dental Surgery set for refurbishment.

After months of planning, Harlow Dental Surgery will be pushing forward with their refurbishment starting in the coming few days. The improvements, which will take between 8-12 weeks' to complete, will see a total overhaul of the practice as upgrades are made to reception, waiting & staff areas.

In the reception and waiting areas, a new floor will be laid & new reception furniture installed. Simultaneously, the whole area will receive a full makeover.

Each individual surgery will also get the makeover treatment including each dentists' chair being re-upholstered, however arguably the most important upgrade will be behind the scenes as a brand new sterilisation room will be introduced. This will bring the practice directly into line with the latest NHS guidelines. The new sterilisation room will replace the area directly behind reception which is currently used for storage purposes.

Finally, a new staff kitchen is to be installed at the rear of the building.

Once complete, Harlow Dental Surgery will take on the same look and feel of its' sister practices at Hoddesdon, Ashwell and Great Shelford.

During this process there will be some minor disruption, however Harlow Dental Surgery will be open and operating as usual. Harlow Dental remains committed to providing the best possible dental health care in comfortable, relaxing surroundings. The refurbishment will help to move this one step closer.

A Healthy Family is a Happy Family.

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

PUBLIC NOTICE
Designation of an Area for Additional Licensing UNDER Section 56, Housing Act 2004

Harlow District Council ("the Council"), Civic Centre, The Water Gardens, Harlow, Essex, CM20 1WG, in exercise of its powers under Section 56 of the Housing Act 2004 ("the Act") has on the 18th December 2014 designated all land in the Council's administrative district as subject to Additional Licensing for the purposes of that section.

The Designation shall come into force on 15th April 2015 and shall cease to have effect on 14th April 2020. Under Section 58 of the Act, this designation falls within a description of designations for which the Secretary of State has issued general approval dated 30 March 2010. This means that following a minimum of 10 weeks consultation with persons who are likely to be affected, every local housing authority in England has the Secretary of State's general approval to designate an area as subject to Additional Licensing.

This designation shall apply to all Houses in Multiple Occupation (HMO's) as defined by Section 254 of the Act which includes flats in multiple occupation in purpose built blocks or converted buildings that are not required to be licensed as a whole.

The proposed scheme includes all Houses in Multiple Occupation (HMO's) in the designated area that are not already subject to Mandatory Licensing (or exempted by the relevant sections of the Housing Act 2004), with the exception of premises which comply with an approved Codes of Practice.

Further, with regard to HMO's that meet the definition contained in section 257 of the same Act, this Designation shall not apply except in the case of those that are mainly or wholly tenanted, including those with resident landlords, or where a significant proportion of owner occupied flats have been let by the owners.

The Council may be contacted at

Civic Centre
The Water Gardens
Harlow CM20 1WG
Tel. 01279 446655 email contact@harlow.gov.uk

Where the designation may be inspected; and where applications for licences and general advice may be obtained.

Any landlord, person managing or tenant within the designated area is advised to seek advice from the Council on whether their property is affected by the designation

Failure to license an HMO is a criminal offence for which an owner can be prosecuted and can be fined up to £20,000. In the Council can in certain cases make a Management Order and take over the management of the property. The owner will not have access to the property and the rent will be collected by the Council. Where owners have been prosecuted tenants can claim back any rent they have paid to the landlord whilst the property was not licensed.

England coach says Cowdery will be crucial

HARLOW'S Matthew Cowdery is set to play a crucial role for England's Learning Disabilities cricket team Down Under, according to head coach Derek Morgan.

Cowdery (pictured above) is part of a 15-strong squad that are set to put national pride on the line as they compete in four one-day internationals and two T20 matches against Australia, starting next Tuesday.

The 23-year-old Nazeing Common Cricket Club player, who has attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, has been with the squad for two years and is beginning to flourish at international level.

And Morgan believes former Harlow Fields School pupil Cowdery is primed and ready to make his mark in the INAS International Cricket Series Australia v England.

"Matthew is an all rounder from Essex and is a fairly recent addition of the squad and came in about two years ago," said Morgan.

"He works exceptionally hard and has to balance lots of commitments work wise as well as his playing commitments which is admirable and shows what a great attitude he has."

"But he has made some real progress and his attitude in the last 12 months has progressed massively in the direction we want him to go in."

"He's really contributing heavily to the direction that we want to go in and I think having him in the squad is important."

"He will want to make an impact in Australia and if he gets the chance then he has the ability to seize it."

For Morgan the opportunity to take on Australia is one that he is relishing and he believes the squad are in perfect shape to repeat the 2-0 whitewash from the teams' last meeting back in 2011 thanks to the likes of Cowdery.

Fabulous

"They are a fantastic group and it's just about managing them well," said Morgan.

"The added incentive of it being a traditional rivalry when we go out there in their environment is a fabulous challenge for me as a coach and for the players."

"I'm so excited by it and I think the players are feeling the same emotions and are really up for it."

"We are really confident that we are doing all we can do for our players and giving them the platform to go and play."

"If we do that then we will be very competitive and can make a real impact over there because I think this is the best prepared LD squad we have ever had in place."

Junior's senior role in notching more wins

Hawks remain on tail of leaders with derby victory

by Tom Nancarrow

star-sport@hertsessexnews.co.uk

Ryman North

Harlow Town 3

Dadson has now scored five goals in his last two games, as he followed up his hat-trick against Barkingside with another top performance.

"When he is in the mood he can be unplayable. You know he is always going to create opportunities for himself. He scored two but he could have had four," said Chapman.

A Fabion Simms header, along with two goals for Dadson, one from the penalty spot in the first half and another deep into second-half injury-time sealed the win.

Chapman knows the title race is getting hotter, but says it is crucial his side keep picking up the points.

He said: "In the first half I thought it looked like they wanted it a bit more than us if I am being honest."

Clinical

"They won more second balls, they were on top of us but we still managed to create three or four good chances though but we weren't clinical enough in the final third."

"Second half we worked a lot harder, we got closer to them but overall I don't think it was a fantastic game as such, but the most important thing was the three points at this stage of the season."

"Fabion was his usual consistent self today the way he has been all season."

"[Dave] Cowley worked really hard and it is hard against them because they have got [Jack] Stevenson who is a really, really good player, so it was important they were on top of their games and I thought they did okay."

Aveley manager Justin Gard-

INTO THE LEAD: Hawks players wheel away in delight after Fabion Simms' goal puts them 2-1 up ner saw his side go in front early on through an unfortunate Joshua Urquhart own goal, but that was as good as it got in the end for the Millers.

The visitors went ahead on six minutes.

Theo Ola sped down the left flank leaving Craig Pope trailing in his wake. He then crossed low into the six-yard box but his delivery took a horrible deflection off the shin of Harlow centre-half Urquhart and it ended up in the net.

Billy Jones saw his sharp turning shot saved by James Marrable before the 20-minute mark as the hosts got a foothold in the game.

The Hawks equalised in the 23rd minute from the penalty

Dadson stepped up in the absence of the injured Alex Read and lashed it into the bottom left corner.

Chapman's men went close to taking the lead when Aveley were temporarily down to ten men following an injury to Paul Preston.

Cowley's effort from the edge of the box went straight at Marrable.

Aveley, however, continued to look a threat down their left channel. Ola sprinted past Pope once more, tried a shot which was heading wide until Aveley captain Billy Holland turned the ball in at the back post only to be denied by the offside flag.

Harlow soaked up some heavy pressure and just after the hour mark took the lead. A Cowley corner was headed away by an Aveley defender straight to the onrushing Simms who expertly guided his header into the top of the net.

Hawks goalkeeper Andy Walker kept the visitors at bay late on with the result still in the balance.

Ex-Stortford midfielder Ahmed Deen's free-kick took a nick off the top of the Harlow wall and Walker had to be alert to make the save.

Deep into stoppage time it was that man Dadson again to wrap up the points.

He caught Aveley on the break and sealed the match with a clinical low finish, much to the relief of the majority of the 252 supporters inside the stadium.

The two managers had words near the end of full-time and this spilled over in the tunnel afterwards.

Both Essex rivals will be pleased to see the back of each other, and Chapman will certainly hope he doesn't meet them in the play-offs, although Aveley have a mountain to climb to finish in the top five now.

HARLOW TOWN: Walker, Pope (Glasgow 76), Eadie, Urquhart, Gorbell, Simms, Appiah (Small 61), Cowley, Antoine, Jones (Stamp 88), Dadson.

Late fightback cages Hawks

Herts Basketball League, Division One

Harlow Hawks 84
Berkhamsted Bears 88

THE Hawks came frustratingly close to their third straight victory on Wednesday.

After three quarters of excellent play, Berkhamsted Bears staged a late run to steal the victory from the home team.

In the opening quarter the Hawks burst into action with some excellent movement of the basketball and plenty of easy opportunities to convert.

Scores from Russ Allan and Alex Hinds sparked a 15-4 run, as the Hawks netted from all over the court.

In his first Hawks senior game of the season, 17-year-old Jack Hawkins provided some excellent scoring prowess off the bench, amassing six points from fast break finishes.

A three-pointer from Shab Niaz and a great finish from Hinds added to the lead.

The quarter finished 39-32.

Bears clawed their way back to within five points early on in the second quarter.

Niaz added another three-pointer, while Allan and Tom White contributed, but an inability to widen the gap gave the Hawks confidence going into the second half.

The third quarter opened with more impressive scoring from Allan and Hinds, sparking a 7-2 run.

Despite some great defence from the Hawks, foul trouble on the defensive end forced coach Niaz to make adjustments.

A 15-4 run from the Bears turned the tables, and left the Hawks scrambling to keep up.

Despite three pointers from Allan and Niaz, fouls by White and Hinds hindered the hosts.

The visitors' late rally secured a narrow victory.

HARLOW HAWKS: Hinds (23pts), Allan (18pts), Niaz (12pts), Griffin (8pts), Cohen (4pts), White (8pts), Hawkins (6pts), Morris, Whytock, Dutnall.

Ladies end losing run

AFTER a run of three losses Harlow Ladies bounced back to crush Brentwood seconds 4-0 in the Essex Women's Hockey League Premier Division.

The visitors got off to a fantastic start with the first goal slotted home by Emma Tweddle within two minutes.

Harlow were in control of the game and doubled their lead through Georgina Smith.

From a penalty corner Tweddle passed to Anna Ferdinando who made it 3-0.

With minutes to spare the final goal was scored by Smith, leaving Harlow with a well-deserved 4-0 victory.

In Division Four, the Harlow Ladies seconds ended a brilliant campaign with a 7-0 home win against Brentwood fifths.

Goalscorers were Lara Horrax (3), Tracey Taylor, Tanishka Naidoo (2) and Sarah Donaghey.

The team missed out on the title by just four points and was a huge improvement on last season's seventh-place finish.

Meanwhile, in the East Men's Hockey League Division Six South West, Harlow suffered a 6-2 home defeat against promotion-chasing Waltham Forest thirds. Harlow have two games left and are seventh in the 12-team table.

Alderson leaves Newtown stumped in final

CRICKETER Ashley Alderson let his feet do the talking as he struck twice to secure victory for his Maypole Sports team in the Harlow & District Football League Division Three Cup final.

Man of the match Alderson, who stepped down as skipper at Harlow Town CC, went close against Newtown Rangers with an early free-kick in the final at The Harlow Arena.

Respite was brief as Alderson scored from a rebound to put his side in front.

Newtown demanded a penalty when Nana Osei burst into Maypole's area and went down, but the referee waved away their claims.

Tony Williams' hard, low shot forced the Rangers keeper into another good save.

At the other end Newtown's Steve Morton twice forced great saves from the Maypole keeper.

After the break, Alderson's header thudded against the crossbar.

But Alderson made it 2-0 moments later when he rounded the keeper and slotted into an empty net.

Alderson missed an easy chance from close range, before Aaron Waterhouse halved the deficit when he fired home.

A late fracas ended with Newtown scorer Waterhouse being sent off, as well as two yellow cards for Maypole players.

Maypole then added a third when the Newtown keeper miskicked his clearance straight to George Harris who rifled in from 30 yards out to put the result beyond doubt.

County finals beckon as England expects

by Alan Scott

alan.scott@hertsessexnews.co.uk

STEVE MITCHINSON will head into the British Isles series – when he will represent England – in strong form having wrapped up final spots in two Essex county competitions.

The Tye Green IBC player headed up to Stanley in the North East of England yesterday (Wednesday) for the start of the three-day competition.

England will take on the cream of Scotland, Wales and Ireland in the tournament.

Mitchinson (39) moved a step close to winning the Essex County Champion of Champions singles title with a thrilling 21-20 victory against Ed Morris (Essex County).

Thrilling encounter

He will face Jamie Holmes in the final on April 12.

He followed this up by partnering Tye Green club-mate Barry O'Connor to victory in the Essex Pairs.

They beat the pair from Chelmsford-based Falcon (Andy Squire/Jamie Ripley) in another thrilling encounter 14-13.

Reflecting on his singles win, Mitchinson said: "I got into an early lead but Ed came back and there was nothing in it in the second half of the game."

"In the last end I was losing 20-19 but got a two to win."

On his pairs triumph, Mitchinson said: "It was a very tight game. We ended up going to the last end and winning by one."

Mitchinson said O'Connor and himself will be favourites in the final, but the singles showdown will be much closer.

"Jamie is the Essex team captain. He's a good player. I might be slight favourite but there's nothing in it really," he said.

Meanwhile, Tye Green's mixed pairs team of O'Connor and Sue Duck suffered semi-final heartbreak in the England Nationals competition at Lincoln.

They lost to Adur (East Sussex).

In the national over 50 triples, John Anderson (Tye Green) beat O'Connor's team 20-19 to progress to the last 16.

In the county triples, the team skipped by Malcolm Tucker (Tye Green) lost to Falcon in the Essex county semi-final.

In Tucker's team was Roy Buckner and Harry Wood.

Rams avenge loss as seashiders are beached

THE Rams produced a superb performance to avenge the one-point loss they suffered in the reverse fixture at Rams Gorse.

Harlow got off to a great start at fifth-placed Lowestoft & Yarmouth with an early try.

From a scrum just inside the L&Y half, scrum-half Charlie Woodington spun the ball out, and quick hands in the backs gave winger Alasdair Phillips room on the flank to out-pace his opposite number and touch down the first try.

Lowestoft stormed back with a converted try to lead 7-5.

Awarded a penalty five metres from the Harlow line, they tapped the ball quickly taking Harlow by surprise and ran the ball over the try-line.

The tries kept flowing and Phillips powered up the wing before feeding captain Shaun

Roberts to put the visitors back in front.

Fly-half Dan Smith converted.

An unconverted try for Lowestoft levelled the score, and then just before the break the hosts scored their third try from a penalty.

Smith missed a penalty in difficult conditions, so the Suffolk side led 17-12 at half-time.

Phillips ran in his second try soon after the restart.

Ryan McGlone chased the ball into the Lowestoft half, making a tackle and forcing a handling error.

As Harlow gained possession Phillips broke through.

McGlone then sprinted through for Harlow's bonus point fourth try.

Jamie Fricker's trademark darting run ended with a scrum in the Lowestoft half.

The Harlow forwards' drive caused Lowestoft to give away a penalty.

Smith kicked this to make it 25-17.

Lowestoft stormed back with a converted try under the posts to cut the gap to a single point, but Harlow dug in for the last few minutes to take the win.

Skipper Roberts told the Star: "We were delighted to go and beat them after they won by a point at home earlier in the season."

"We were gutted to lose our unbeaten home record. We have not lost since [at home]. It was definitely a score we were looking to settle."

"Alasdair got two really good tries, that were good team moves that he finished off.

"To go away from home and get a bonus point win was very pleasing."

"It probably should have been more comfortable. We ended up scraping home by a point."

Harlow have a break this weekend, before hosting promotion-chasing West Norfolk on March 21.

Their opponents have moved up to second, ahead of Cantabrigian, and defeated the Rams in the corresponding fixture 42-15.

Dawn breaks ahead to World Champs after GB joy

DAWN JONES rolled back the years as she triumphed in the British Masters Indoor Championships – and is now fully focused on the outdoor season when she will take part in the World Championships.

Jones (45), a Harlow Athletic Club member, beat her nearest rival in the triple jump by almost two metres (9.48m).

But she was more pleased with her time in the 400m as she secured second spot at the Lee Valley Athletics Centre in a time of 68.81sec.

This all bodes well for her performance in the heptathlon at the World Masters Championships in Lyon, France in August.

Jones (pictured right), of Sawbridgeworth, has certainly hit peak form during the indoor season, and recently picked up the senior women's triple jump bronze at the Essex County Championships. She leapt 9.47m to win the women's 45 age group. It will be the sixth time that she has represented Great Britain at the World Masters Championships.

Despite winning the triple jump at the British Masters, Jones felt there was plenty of room for improvement.

"It was okay. I beat the next girl [Jacqueline Breslin] by two metres," she said.

"The 400m really tells me where I am in my training as I need to do the 800m. It's a good test. I should have been way down the field."

Jones previously won bronze at the World Indoors triple jump in 2006, but is now focused on the heptathlon.

Harlow AC coach Steve Lott paid tribute to Jones. He said: "Many congratulations to Dawn. It is tremendous to see that she still has the drive and motivation to get out and compete."

"She is a fantastic role model for all our athletes and especially the women, and as such the perfect choice to captain our women's team this season."

Penguins on fire in return to top flight

HARLOW Penguins Swimming Club began life in the top division in the Essex League and came a point short of beating premier team Romford in their opening meeting.

The club have secured three successive promotions to move back to the top flight for the first time in nearly ten years.

Basildon Sporting Village was the venue with Romford clear favourites having dominated for the last 15 years.

Penguins head coach Martin Stringer said: "To finish a point behind Romford, I'm not sure whether I'm really pleased with the result or gutted that we didn't turn them over."

Brimming with confidence after the successes of the Essex County Championships, the Penguins claimed victory in 16 of the 49-race programme.

Top performers on the night were the senior men's team of Karl Batorski, Mason Arnold, Lee Baker and Bradley Veitch, who won all their races. They won both the 4x50m freestyle and 4x50m medley relays.

Individually, Arnold triumphed in the men's open 100m butterfly in 58.25sec.

Dominated

Baker won the 100m backstroke (1min 01.93sec) and the 100m freestyle in 53.39.

Batorski dominated the men's open 100m breaststroke (1:07.45).

Bradley Veitch also gained victories in the 15&U age group, clocking 55.94 in the 100m freestyle and 28.40 in the 50m butterfly.

He was also part of the 15&U 4x50m freestyle and 4x50m medley relay winning teams, with Filip Kusnir, Jamie Rushworth and Greg Barton. Barton produced an amazing last leg splat of 26.38 to beat Newham by two-hundredths of a second.

Carys Brealey, Penguins' swimmer of the month for February after her county success, dominated the 11&U 50m freestyle event, her time of 29.98 confirmed her place as the UK's top U11 sprint freestyler.

The 11&U girls' relay team of Lily Taylor (33.52), Leanne Hemmings (34.57), Ellie Cronin (33.63) and Brealey (28.73) beat a strong Romford team into second place.

Emily Hills showed a return to form with a great win in the 15/U 100m freestyle event (1:04.29).

Hills (30.15) was also part of the victorious girls 15/U 4x50m freestyle team with Celeste Andrew (29.57), Caitlin Mascall (30.13) and Olviya Holleyman (30.22).

Kirsty Vears clocked 1:19.01 which was her best this year, for victory in the girls' open 100m breaststroke.

Lauren Nelson clocked 1:23.10 to win the 13/U 100m breaststroke.

Penguins had 15 second places and not a single Harlow swimmer finished outside the top five.

Tunnel row between managers sparked by bad blood on pitch

By Alan Scott

alan.scott@hertssexnews.co.uk

BAD blood between Hawks boss Danny Chapman and his Aveley counterpart Justin Gardiner exploded and allegedly ended with a tunnel fracas between the two managers on Saturday.

The pair had to be pulled apart amid allegations that Harlow Town's elderly chairman John Barnett was accidentally hurt in the bust-up between the two.

It was sparked when words were exchanged between the two men minutes before the end of the Ryman North match, which ended with Hawks winning 3-1.

The referee ended up speaking to both managers after the initial incident.

Chapman was keen to play down the fracas and understandably wanted to focus on Harlow Town's third successive win, but admitted the pair have never got on.

"He [Gardiner] lost his rag. The of friends. As far as I am concerned it's case closed."

Meanwhile, Chapman has admitted that the Ryman North title is now Needham Market's to lose.

Needham are five points clear after winning a tricky away encounter at play-off chasing Brentwood Town 3-1 on Tuesday.

"We will keep pounding away and hope Needham slip up," said Chapman.

"You never know. We will never give up and will keep fighting but realistically it's in Needham's hands. They are in the driving seat, but we will be waiting for them to make that slip up."

Harlow face a tricky trip to play-off chasing Dereham Town on Saturday.

Specialist

Meanwhile, striker Alex Read will see another specialist as there are hopes that, despite suffering a break to a leg, it is not as bad as first feared.

However, he is unlikely to play again until the end of April, but could be crucial if Harlow have to go down the play-off route once again.

"Alex keeps himself in good shape anyway and there's a chance he could be back in April," said Chapman hopefully.

Defender Craig Pope picked up an automatic ban with his tenth yellow card of the season in the win over Aveley.

Although he is available for the Dereham game, he sits out games against Brightlingsea (at home) and Chatham Town (away).

Chapman knows his side are in good form. "That's three wins on the bounce, which is good. We have to keep accumulating maximum points in these last eight games," he added.
